Verse 1

The speaker plays the song we wrote that night
I'm confronted by your ghost

The melody replaying in my mind (oh oh oh)
It cuts deeper than you know

Pre-Chorus

Cuz I gotta a lotta love to lose babe
It's getting kinda hard to choose faith
Had a tough time letting you go
Leave my trust issues at the door

Askin' me to put the past behind us
But the memories linger and bind us
You let me bleed out on the floor

So I'm asking

Chorus

How'm I gonna fix what's shattered
Who's gonna catch my fall
All my heart's been
Broken, broken before

Shattered on the floor in pieces
Never felt this insecure
Oh my world's been
Broken, broken

Been broken before

Verse 2

I remember how we laughed and cried (oh oh)
Poured our hearts out on the page

The words we sang, they fell out of the sky (oh oh ooh)
Shooting lightning through my veins

Pre-Chorus

Cuz I gotta a lot love to lose babe
It's getting kinda hard to choose faith
Had a tough time letting you go
Leave my trust issues at the door

Askin' me to put the past behind us,
But the memories linger and bind us
You let me bleed out on the floor

So I'm asking

Chorus

How'm I gonna fix what's shattered
Who's gonna catch my fall
All my hearts been
Broken, broken before

Shattered on the floor in pieces
Scared im going to lose it all
Oh my world's been
Broken, broken
Been broken before

How'm I gonna fix what's shattered
Who's gonna catch my fall
All my hearts been
Broken, broken before
